Dear Keith,

As you know, HMICFRS recently published its Integrated PEEL Assessment for Humberside Police.

HMICFRS inspections are a vital part of the policing landscape allowing the public to understand the level of service that is being provided by their local force. The Inspectorate's reports shine a light on how well each force is performing across a wide spectrum of areas and provides information to help it address weaknesses and improve.

I am very pleased to see that your force is continuing to perform well across all three of the PEEL pillars. This is a real achievement not least at a time when police forces are under increasing pressure from growing and complex demand. I note that HMICFRS has also identified a number of areas where improvements can be made to enhance your performance and assure the public of the quality of service being delivered.

I look forward therefore to receiving your response to the report and understanding how you plan to sustain, and indeed improve, this level of performance as well as any steps you might take to share the good practice that has been identified within the sector.

Responses should be sent to: section55responses@homeoffice.gov.uk where they will be considered by both HMICFRS and Home Office officials.
