

Dear

Thank you for your email of 18 April where you requested information about various costs within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Humberside.

I can confirm that the information that you have requested is held by this office. Please find below our response to your questions as follows:

- A. The total amount spent claimed by your office on newspapers, magazines and periodicals since 16 November 2012

From the election of the Commissioner to 19 April 2013, £61.72 was spent on newspapers.

- B. The total amount spent by your office on hospitality since 16 November 2012 including dates and details of any guests attending and venue

Chief Constable Tim Hollis recently retired from Humberside Police and the Commissioner, in recognition of his service, held a retirement lunch for him on 26 March 2013. 40 people attended the event at Pacific Exchange and the total cost was £373.10.

- C. The total amount spent by your office on plants, shrubs or flowers since 16 November 2012

A bouquet of flowers was sent to the former Chief Constable's wife on 26 March and these cost £46.98.

- D. The total amount spent on furnishing and/or redecorating your office including furniture, carpeting, wall coverings and any other kind of decoration including pictures since 16 November 2012

Since the election of the Commissioner a cupboard has been purchased for the storage of stationery at a cost of £261.49. No other furnishings, carpeting, wall covering or pictures have been purchased nor decoration carried out.
