3. How many public events has your deputy PCC attended since they were appointed? If possible please specify what they were ie Police and Crime Panel meeting on January 1st, country show on January 2nd etc.

Paul Robinson has attended 80 public events, a breakdown of these is attached to this email. Please note that this list relates only to "public events" that he has attended, he has of course attended many other meetings at which the public may or may not have been present.

4. Are there any performance targets for your deputy PCC and if so, what are they and have they been met?

The Deputy Commissioner does not have any specific performance targets, however, when appointed it was agreed that he would have a number of key objectives namely (i) Make a significant contribution to, and deputise for the PCC, in discharging the statutory role of the Commissioner; (ii) Proactively enhance relationships with stakeholders in the community safety and criminal justice sector; (iii) Proactively enhance relationships with local and regional media; (iv) Work with the force to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the 'back office', and (v) Work with the Chief Executive to ensure the Office of the Commissioner best supports him. It was agreed that the Deputy Commissioner's performance against these targets would be reviewed after one year. This review has been conducted and it has been deemed that he has met his targets.
